Hit these historical highlights with us and explore the magic of the mighty diamond.

- 2000 BC Egyptians play the first game with a ball and a bat.
- 1700 "Base ball" was born from an English children's game called "rounders".
- 1834 "The Book of Sports" was published outlining instructions on how to play the game.
- 1845 Alexander J Cartwright became head of the Knickerbocker Base Ball Club in New York, and created a list of the first 20 rules of baseball.
- 1869 The Cincinnati Red Stockings become the first pro team.
- 1875 Bill "Gunner" McGunnigle wore a pair of brick-layer's gloves to the game and found it was much easier to catch the ball wearing a glove.
- 1883 First night game played in Fort Wayne, Indiana
- 1903 First World Series- Boston beats Pittsburgh 5-3
- 1914 William Howard Taft was the first President to throw out the season's first ball.
- 1921 KDKA in Pittsburgh airs the first major league radio broadcast. The Pirates beat the Phillies 8-5.
- 1931 The Baseball Writer's Association of America began the MVP tradition, and named a Most Valuable Player for each league.
- 1933 The first major league All Star game.
- 1935 Babe's last game.
- 1939 The Baseball Hall of Fame opens and honors several of the great athletes of the game.
- 1939 NBC televises the first baseball game on an experimental television called W2XBS. The game pitted the Reds against the Dodgers at Ebbet's Field.
- 1939 Lou's last game.
- 1944 To raise money for the war effort, the Giants, Dodgers, and Yankees gathered and rotated through 6 innings for a wartime game. (Dodgers 5, Yankees 1, Giants 0)
- 1947 Jackie Robinson broke the segregation barrier and signed with the Brooklyn Dodgers to become the first black player in modern major league baseball.
- 1968 The Houston Astrodome hosts the first indoor All Star game. National League wins 1-0
- 1978 The Dodgers pack their stadium full with over 3 million fans.
- 1986 Every major league team brings in over 1 million fans.
- 1992 The Houston Astros give up the Astrodome for the Republican National Convention and hit the road for a 28-game trip.
- 1994 Baseball Strike preempts World Series.
